

Practical Project Management

Overview

The use of project management as a business tool has become a business imperative. The programme is designed to give essential knowledge of planning, implementing and reviewing project. Delegates will also understand the need to effectively engage others in projects.

Content

- What is project management?
- Identifying the project
- The initiation phase
- Project execution
- Facilitation of projects
- Project monitoring and reporting
- Closing a project

For Whom Intended

Anyone involved in the management of projects

Duration

2 days